Exchange & Broker's Office,

Georgetown, District of Columbia.
ROMULUS RIGGS.
AT his office, next door below Crawford's tavern, Bridge-st. Georgetown, will exchange all kinds of Bank Notes on the most reasonable terms.—All persons who may have notes on the banks of North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia, would do well to call on him, as he is largely in the purchase of that kind of money, and will take it on the most reasonable terms.—Persons travelling to the Western Country may at all times get the Bank Notes of the Western Banks at a fair discount, by calling at his Office. For the information of all persons throughout the U. States, R. Riggs makes it known, that all of the Banks of the District of Columbia pay their notes on demand in specie; and it would be much to the advantage of the merchants, and trading to the South and west, to encourage the circulation of the Notes of the Banks of Georgetown, Washington and Alexandria, as it will at all times answer for remittances to the large commercial and Atlantic towns;—all persons emigrating or travelling to the westward should be very particular and take the Notes of the Banks of the District of Columbia, as they will find them the most current, there being no counterfeits on the District Banks. The Merchants' Bank of Alexandria has long since failed—all persons should be on their guard, as they will be imposed on. August 18

Valuable Family Medicines.

JUST received direct from the proprietors, the following valuable Medicines, all of which have been in use for a number of years past, in almost every part of the United States; have been highly patronised by people of the first respectability; and approved by those who have had occasion to make use of them, for the cure of those disorders, for which they are severally calculated.

Dr. Lee's Genuine (Windham) Bilious Pills,

Universally known and used throughout the United States as a Family Medicine. The fame of these pills has become so great that many have attempted to counterfeit them—to guard against this, the proprietors have procured a Stereotype Label, and each box of Genuine Lee's Pills will hereafter be enclosed in one of these labels, with these words on the sides: "Lee's Genuine Windham Billious Pills," and on the end of the Label the words, "Samuel Lee, patentee, &c. I. Thompson, agent, joint proprietor," &c. and should any be offered for sale without said Label on them, the purchaser may be apprised that they are counterfeit.

Dr. Thompson's Celebrated Eye-Water:

For the cure of inflamed and sore eyes of almost every description. This valuable preparation comes highly recommended from the most respectable sources. Price 50 and 25 cents a bottle.

Dr. Rawson's Genuine Itch Ointment:

A certain and safe cure for that disagreeable complaint, as well as other irruptions of the skin. Price 37½ cents a box.

Dr. Rawson's Anti-Bilious and Stomachic Bitters,

For weakly and infirm constitutions. Price 37½ cents a box.

Hinckley's Infallible Remedy for the Piles,

A most valuable medicine. Price 50 cents a box.

Specific Drops for the Tooth Ache,

Which in almost every case, gives instant relief, in that distressing complaint. Price 37½ cents a bottle.

Cooley's Vegetable Elixir, for Coughs, Asthmas, Consumptions, &c.

A very valuable medicine in those complaints. Price 50 cents a bottle.

The Courier of January 28th contains the letter of Mr Adams, to our Minister at Madrid. The Editor observed that he shall resume any remark on this extraordinary document until the business is brought before Parliament.

The Star of February 20, states, on the authority of a gentleman who left Paris on the Thursday previous, that serious apprehensions were entertained by the King's Physicians, that he was threatened with mortification in the legs. The report of his death, it will be recollected was received in London, on the 22d

By the monthly bulletin, issued Feb. 6. it appeared that the King of England had enjoyed during the last month an uninterrupted state of good health, but his Majesty's disorder remained the same.

Two royal marriages, it is said are soon o take place; one between the Arch Duke Ranier, viceroy of Austrian Italy, and the Princess Charlotte of Lucca, daughter of the late queen of Etruria; and the other between the Arch Duke Palatine of Hungary and the Princess of Wertemberg.

CONSPIRACY AT VALENCIA.

A full statement has been made public of the particulars of this plot, with the names of the conspirators, and an account of their execution. Colonel Videl, their leader, had raised himself from the ranks, and was therefore a good officer, but of bad morals, and an extremely bad character.—Twenty-four hours were allowed the prisoners to make their defence, which is a mere matter of form, for no defence is ever listened to—and the day after, all the thirteen were condemned to be hanged—but the executioner, who is a poor slim fellow, with two much feeling for his employment, gave notice that he was ill, in consequence of having strangled, a father, son, son-in-law, and two couzins, the same week.—He was asked if he could hang one? he answered yes—so Vidal was fixed upon, and the others sentenced to be shot, and afterwards to be hanged up beside their fellow conspirators. Vidal, when brought out to his execution, was so emaciated by fever, as to be scarcely able to support himself; but just before he was turned off, being called a traitor to his country by the monk who attended him, he started, raised his head with a sort of convulsive effort, and looking the monk in the face, sternly exclaimed, "Traitor to my country! Never, Never! I have been too loyal to her, and for that I die." The following are the names of the remaining sufferers who were all shot;—Felix Beltram, receiver of the salt duties at the Groa; Diego Manuel Calatrava, Beltram's head clerk; Mancelino Rougel and Serafin Larossa, two searjeants: Peregrin Pla, Apothecary; Vincente Clemente, common soldier; Blas Feriol, shoemaker; Manuel Bendegear, and Francisco Segrera, two small proprietors in the villige of Rousafa; Louis Albino, a peasant; Francisco Gay and Louis Vive, two ship caulkers. Albino was the only one who consented to receive a confession—but as he was posssessed of no secret, nothing could be learned from him.—The conspirators were all seated in a line, upon stools, and the execution was performed by 26 soldiers, who fired at the same instant. They all behaved with heroic fortitude and resolution.

The late Queen of Wurtemberg, has bequeathed to the King her husband, a million of rubles and two services of plate, one of which is gold, and still continues in the chests in which it was transported from Petersburgh. She has also granted to him the use of three millions of rubles, which she has bequeathed to her daughters, until they come of age.

A French traveller, now in Egypt, has discovered at about a distance of nine hours journey from the Red Sea, an ancient city built in the mountains, between the 24th and 25th degree of latitude. There are still 800 houses in existence. Among the ruins are found temples dedicated to various divinities. There are 11 statues, and various ruins of others. He has also discovered the ancient stations that were appointed on the route through the desert, going from the Red Sea to the Valley of the Nile. Those stations are at regular distances of nine hours between each.—This route is undoubtedly one of those traversed by the commerce of India, a commerce which so flourishing at the time of Lagides, and under the first Emperors.—The situation is now ascertained of the Emerald mine, of which no certain knowledge was had for several ages.

A young French traveller, nephew of Count Mollien, ex-minister, has succeeded in reaching Tombuctoo, by way of Selgal. His family has just received a letter from him in which he announces his safe arrival in that celebrated town, hitherto unknown to Europeans, and which the unfortunate Mungo Park twice vainly attempted to reach.

It is said that a considerable quantity of English bank notes, of one and two pound each, have been forged in Paris, and sent to England.

The eldest son of the deceased Austrian Minister, Count Wallis, is, it is said, to be married to the daughter of Fouche, the ex-French Minister.

The Inquisitor General of Spain has fulminated his anathema against a work recently introduced into that country, entitled "The Coming of the Messiah in his Glory and Majesty" by John Josephet Ben Ezra. He orders all the copies of this work to be delivered up, and prohibits it being in future sold, kept, read, or printed, under the pain of the grand excommunication, and a fine of 200 ducats to defray the expences of the Holy Office.—He says the book has occasioned much disorder and anxiety in the minds of many persons, the learned as well as the unlearned.

Philadelphia, April, 5.

Extract of a letter dated Tunis, Dec. 11, to a Gentleman in Boston.

The plague, after desolating the kingdom of Algiers, has appeared here also. It broke out early in October in this city, and has since spread through a great part of the kingdom. It is estimated that the Bey looses more than 2000 subjects daily. In this city alone, whose population does not much exceed 100,000, the number of deaths per day is about 300.—On one day last week it amounted to 350, and we think quite favourably of the public health when it deseends towards 200. I will not attempt to depict to you the horrors of pestilence. My mind has been so overplied with them that it has lost all excitability, and all feeling of personal damage. The population of the city has already suffered a diminution of more that 30,000 by death and emigration—probably more than 15,000 have fallen victims to the plague in the course of 3 months. One vast suburb is literally dispeopled.—You may form some idea of the ravages of the malady, and of the exactness with which justice is here administered in certain respects, from the remarkable fact that a poor cobler was the other day summoned from his stall, at the corner of a neighboring street, to take possession as sole inheritor, of twelve different estates at once. As I sit in my parlour I hear during the day almost one unbroken song from the funeral processions passing beneath the windows, like platoons of the same army, often bearing two bodies on the same bier, and of which no less than ninty have fallen under our observation in the course of a few hours. The burden of their hymn is frequently that charitable text of the Koran, "Send, O Allah, send death to the infidels." The stillness of the night is broken by the shrieks of woman, heard from every quarter, lamenting in the oriental manner over the bodies of those who have just ceased to live. It is, of course, impossible to calculate the duration of this calamity: but there is reason to fear it will increase in the spring. We once read together Thucydides's account of the plague of Athens, little thinking at that time that one of us should afterwards be called to witness a similar scene. His description applies almost exactly to the plague now raging here, and to that I refer you: or, if Greek is unfashionable, among gentlemen of the law, you will find the same account more at length in Lucretus, lib. 6.

I came to this place with a becoming diffidence, but I now think myself qualified to be minister at Constantinople. To be serious, when a nation keeps constantly a display of power before these barbarians, its representative has only to use common sense and discretion—or rather to abstain from imprudence and folly—in order to be respected and to accomplish all his ends. It requires however some decision of character to make a stand a gainst the imposing airs of a despotic government, and some knowledge of mankind to detect the punic craftiness and wiles of the court of Tunis.

Boston, April 1.

A letter from Salem, dated 3 P. M. yesterday, states that the ship Liverpool Packet, Morgan, from Canton for this port, with a valuable cargo, to Mr. Lyman, went on shore on Baker's Island breakers, in the squall of Tuesday evening. About 9 o'clock yesterday morning, it was found she made a great deal of water. Three large Chebacco boats had left her full loaded, and two sloops and two schrs from Marblehead were alongside, rendering all the assistance possible. The letter adds, that she was probably off, and states that a ship was coming, supposed to be the George from Calcutta.

The gentleman who brought the above letter, states that the ship had got off, and he saw her at anchor.

Capt. Couthouy has brought despatches for Don Onis, the Spanish minister, and the secretary of the United States.

(Per brig Edward Foster.)

Prices at Gibraltar, 4th Feb.—Flour 9 to 9.50; cotton, New-Orleans 32 to 33; Brazils 49 to 50 nominal; corn 1 40 to 1 50 per fanega, very dull; codfish, English, 4 15 price demanded for a cargo; America 84; hides, Buenos Ayres 15 to 15 50 sales; nankins 129 long, 75 short pieces; sugars, Havana white 15 50; brown 11 50; sales of a cargo at these prices; w. o. pipe per 1200, $70; tobacco, Ken. old crop $13; new crop 12 50, no demand; negro head 12, large parcels on hand and very dull; tar 3 dols. small parcels sold at this; teas, gunpowder 1 12½ lb; hyson 57½; navy agents bills on the United States par; Spanish dollars 3½ pemium.

Gibraltar, Feb. 7.

Ship Medora, from Philadelphia, in coming in let go her anchor in shoal water, and touched the bottom, by which she broke her rudder—she was hove off with but little damage. The schnr Dove, from Philadelphia, arrived with the loss of her mate and one man washed overboard, and had thrown over part of her cargo of flour and one cable; she is now discharging and her cargo is much damaged. The wind has prevailed from the westward since the 16th January, which has prevented many vessels from sailing, which have been ready since that time. We have not heard of the arrival of any of our countrymen in our neighborhood, except brig Susannah & Mary, from Boston at Cadiz.

February 8.

The wind is now fair, and the vessels mentioned as ready, are preparing to get under weigh. We have heard of the arrival of the brig Despatch, Simmons, at Alicant. We have two cargoes of flour unsold in this bay, said to be bound to Lisbon; but there is no inducement to go there at present prices. Last sale of flour here was 9½ per bbl. and we have now in store and in the bay from 18 to 20,000 bls; large parcels have arrived from England and Madeira. Brig Exchange, Jenkins, sailed 16th Jan. for Messina. Brig Eliza Hayley, Woodbury, from Boston, arrived Jan. 3d, in 37 days, and sailed for Leghorn next day.

By letters from Oran, up to the 24th December, it appears that the plague had again broken out in that town, and that the deaths at Tlemesen were about twenty a day.

January 23.

The Madrid Gazette received this week, brings official accounts of the Queen of Spain's funeral at the Escurial, on the 30th ult. and a royal decree, dated the 14th inst. authorizing the board appointed to superintend the fitting out of the expeditions sent to Spanish America, to open a loan of three million dollars, payable by instalments in ten years, and bearing an annual interest of 8 per cent. Certain taxes and duties, the amount of which is collected by the board, are mortgaged for the punctual payment of both capital and interest.

January 30.

A Spanish royal order of the 14th inst. published in the Madrid Gazette, of the 23d directs all foreigners, taken with arms in their hands in the insurgent provinces of America, or convicted of supplying the rebels with the means of carrying on the contest with the mother country, to be immediately put to death, on the ground that the continuation of this unnatural contest is chiefly to be imputed to them, and that they have no claim to the mercy which his majesty shews in many instances, to the insurgents themselves, as they can never plead ignorance or seduction, which is often the case with his majesty's deluded subjects.

From the Boston Gazette, March 29.

A letter from Mr. Wm. A. Gale, supercargo of the brig Clarion, of this port, dated Owyhee, 20th August, says:—there has lately been a piratical ship here, which was a Patriot, taken from the officers by the crew, and gold, silver and goods, passed to the natives, to a very large amount, at less than would cost to freight them from Europe to America. A 34 gun vessel, belonging to the Patriots, has just arrived in pursuit of her, and has already obtained the ship, and part of the men. The pirate mounted about 90 guns, and was sold to the old king, for about 750 piculs of sandal wood; but he smelled a rat, detained the whole, and the business will be amicably settled, he keeping the cargo in which was supposed to be at least 15,000 dollars in cash.

New-York, March 30.

The subscriber, master of the brig Telegraph, of Rhode Island, from Savannah for New-York, with a cargo of cotton, was so unfortunate as to be wrecked on the morning of the 4th of March, on Absecomb beach 6 miles to the northward of Great Egg Harbor, in the county of Gloucester, (N.J.) In a few hours after the brig struck, from 40 to 50 men appeared on the beach and being satisfied she could not be got off without first unloading her, I immediately sent the boat on shore to engage 25 of them to assist in landing and saving the cargo. But I was soon given to understand that they all should lend a hand, and meant to come in for a share of the cargo. Thus situated I was compelled to consent, and before dark the cargo was all got safe upon the beach, except two bales of cotton very little damaged.* By this time the number of men who had continued to flock to the scene of distress amounted to upwards of 90—and as soon after the sun had set, and the darkness of the night would favor their projects, a scene of villainy commenced. Attempts were made to bribe the men who were employed to watch the cargo on the beach, to permit it to be carried off, and notwithstanding all their vigilance, one fellow succeeded in rolling a bale of cotton some distance before he was discovered—They claimed one third of the cargo, equal to five thousand and odd dollars, as a compensation for the trouble, which I refused to give them. But so eager were these cannibals to divide the spoil between them, they immediately commenced suits against me to recover that amount. Two referees were appointed to adjust the business, but unfortunately for me they could not agree, and a third was called in as umpire, when in the twinkling of an eye he decided that all the claimants asked for should be allowed, besides 56 dollars for the labor of 26 men, a part of one day in making an unsuccessful effort to get the brig off.

I have thought it my duty to give the above facts to the world, and more particularly to my sea-faring brethren, that, should they ever be so unfortunate, (which God forbid) as to be cast ashore on Absecomb Beach, what sort of treatment they may expect to meet with from the Hottentots in that neighborhood. I should be wanting in gratitude were I to permit this letter to go to the public without exonerating Mr. Gideon Leeds, the Collector of Great Egg-Harbor, Mr. Richard Somers, and Mr. James Somers, from any participation in the shameful treatment I experienced.—These gentlemen rendered me every assistance in their power, for which I beg them to receive my grateful thanks.

Captain AARON HILL,
Late master of the brig Telegraph.

*The two bales of cotton here mentioned as being lost, floated to sea, and were pick-up by two boats out of Absecomb Inlet—one of which I recovered, the other was secreted and divided among the three men who took it up.

Extract of a letter from Newbern, N. C. dated March 23.

"Two valuable Patriot prizes, (as they are called, but in reality prizes to the —— from Baltimore,) are ashore at Beaufort; a schooner, with 120 pipes of Spanish brandy; and a ship, mounting 12 guns, with an immensely valuable cargo; unfortunately the greater part of the ship's cargo is lost, consisting of gold dust, tortoise shell, ivory, sugar, coffee, cotton, hides, &c. Nothing but the cotton has as yet been saved from the ship; she lies sunk in eighteen feet water, where she first grounded. It is a stain upon our government that the career of these —— is not checked."

FATAL AFFAIR.

The following succinct statement of the unfortunate affair which happened on Saturday last in this city, comes from the pen of a gentleman of respectability, and truth, and is corroborated by the evidence of persons who witnessed the whole transaction given before the magistrates. [Gaz.

"In relating the circumstances of a fatal rencontre between John L. Hopkins and M'Queen M'Intosh, which happened on the 27th inst. and which terminated in the death of the latter gentleman, we are influenced by no other feelings than a sincere regard to truth and justice. The facts, as they are exhibited by disinterested persons present, are these. That, on the morning of the 27th inst. John L. Hopkins, accompanied by his father and a man of the name of Jenkins, arrived in town, and after some ineffectual efforts at reconciliation between the friend of M'Queen M'Intosh and John L. Hopkins, the latter proceeded to the boarding house kept by Dewit & Burnett, where Mr. M'Intosh resided, and did there make an assault on him, in the first instance with a drawn sword cane, and afterwards with pistols. That in the first rencontre, Mr. M'Intosh received several wounds inflicted by John L. Hopkins and his father, and this without any provocation, save the previous misunderstanding that existed between the parties. That, on being seperated, Mr. M'Intosh retired into the upper story of the house, for the purpose of providing himself with the means of defence. That in descending the stairs, J. L. Hopkins (who was on the platform of the house and opposite the door leading to the stair case) presented a pistol, with a threat, that, if he attempted to advance, he would shoot him down, that, at that instant, the door was closed—and Mr. M'Intosh, availing himself of the back door, proceeded thro' the yard, round the house—where John L. Hopkins apprised of his movement, and sheltered by the corner of the building concealed from view, awaited his approach, and without any previous notice, discharged his pistol at him within five paces.—That, on the discharge, he retreated or rather run, until he reached the end of the platform, when, in the act of leaping behind a tree, Mr. M'Intosh fired without effect. That John L. Hopkins availing himself of the concealment of his person, took deliberate aim, and shot his antagonist through the body, who, while in the act of falling, and when his murderer was running with dastardly steps, presented his second pistol, and the well directed ball shattered the fugitive's arm, though twelve yards distant."

From the Mercantile Advertiser, April 5.

VERY LATE FROM FRANCE.

On Saturday afternoon, the remarkably fast sailing ship Adonis, Capt. Price, arrived at this port in 30 days from Havre, whence she sailed on the evening of the 1st of March, and has furnished the Editors of the Mercantile Advertiser with papers of that place to 28th Feb. and Paris papers to the 27th, inclusive, which contain no political news of moment. The Adonis has brought 120,000 dollars Specie, for the U. S. Bank.

The French goverument has permitted the exportation of maize, millet, and potatoes from the south western departments of France, in consequence of the low prices at which the different species of grain were sold throughout those districts.

The king of France had been ill, but was so well at the last accounts as to attend the public amusements.

We learn that Mr. Gallatin will remain in France another year.

Up at Havre, Feb. 25, Fr. brig Deux Angeliques, Joulain, for New-York, soon; ship Africain, Coufion, for New-Orleans.

Brig Mercure, Vacquerie, from Savannah, for Rouen, passed Havre about 24th February.

Sale at Havre Feb. 25, 83 bales Georgia cotton, old crop, 1,81½; 47, do at 1f 72½.

At Hamburg, Feb. 13, Am. cottons declining, and little demanded—pepper and pimento, in better demand; cocoa and cochineal, no demand; wheat and rye falling. Tobacco, except Virginia, maintains its price. A lot of hyson skin tea was sold at 29½ 31½—no demand for tea except for local consumption. There was some stir in sugars—Havana white 14½ a 15—fine brown 11¾ a 7-8. Potashes 26 a 27m; tallow 45 a 46 rix dollars.

At Genoa, Feb. 13—50 boxes Havana sugar, acq. 63; 1900 B. A. hides, 105; 17 hds Jam. coffee, 30; 6000 lbs Malabar pepper, 14,6.

The French stocks were declining—five per cents, Feb. 27, 66½ a 67—bank stock, 1490.

Extract of a letter, dated Havre, 28th February.

Since our last, our market in general, we regret to say, has gone from bad to worse, in consequence of the late failures, which have created an almost unparallelled want of confidence. New Upland cottons go off with difficulty at 40 sous; New-Orleans, 45 a 46. In rice and tobacco, nothing doing.

The failures of importance are: J. G. Merrian & Co. who are principally engaged in colonial goods, in which they lately speculated largely, especially in coffee—it is said they have failed for 1,000,000 francs; Mr. B. Boucherot, of Havre, caused by the suspension of Boucherot & Co. of Paris, bankers.—This morning's post from Paris brings intelligence of the suspension of Scherer & Finguerlin Grosrenaud & Bernard. of this place, are also named.—More failures are looked for.

Such being the state of things here, and in fact every where, we would strenuously advise you to do nothing yourselves, and to prevent your friends doing any thing till you receive better accounts.

Shad and Herrings

CAN be had, in any reasonable quantities, and at moderate prices, at the White-House Fishery

of the Belvoir estate, on the river Potomac; and persons from the country, as well as water customers, are invited to that shore, where they may expect the best treatment, and every facility, in getting such supplies as they need, which that well known fishery, and the utmost attention of the subscriber, can afford. Having been long experienced in that business on the Delaware river, and having taken the fishery for several seasons, he has caused a complete outfit to be made, not only for taking Shad, as heretofore, but Herrings, of which it is well known that almost any number may be caught at that shore, when the gluts are in the river. A very complete and commodious fish-house, on the spot, may be made use of by persons disposed to put up fish extensively, and who bring barrels and salt for the purpose. A number of barrels, and a quantity of salt, may probably also be had at the fish-house.——As the

at the mouth of Pohick Creek, on the same estate, is carried on this season by Mr. John Henderson, there will be the greater certainty that customers will not be disappointed in herrings, the two fisheries being near together: but country customers are cautioned not to come too early for herrings; as, of late years, they have several times done, and by returning home have missed of getting their supply, which afterwards was plentiful.

Notice.

WAS committed to Fairfax county jail by warrant from under the hand and seal of George Mason, esq.

Negro Edmond,

as a runaway. The negro, on examination, says he was formerly the property of William Johnson, of Gloucester county, Virginia, and sold by said Johnson to some negro trader, the man's name he knows not. Edmond is about 21 years old, 5 feet 4 inches high, strong and well made—his cloathing an old mixed country pair of pantaloons, an old roundabout jacket, and an old wool hat. The owner, if any, is requested to come forward, prove his property, pay charges and take him away, otherwise he will be dealt with according to law.

Gunston for Sale.

THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Pohick creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaister acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania.—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain: being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary outhouse, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might,) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvass backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensels and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Pohick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.

September 4 GEORGE MASON.

Valuable Property for Sale.

THE subscriber is desirious of selling a handsomely situated farm, on Hunting creek, in Fairfax county Virginia, adjoining the Mount Vernon estate and the lands of general Thomson Mason, four miles from Alexandria, containing about 240 acres, 80 of which are in wood—40 to 50 in thriving meadow of clover and timothy—a part of the residue recently seeded with wheat and rye, and clover, last spring—the whole enclosed with a new post and rail fence.—The improvements are, a comfortable and convenient frame dwelling house and kitchen, smoke house, poultry house, granary and stables.—There is on this place a rich and productive garden, and a large body of marsh meadow, from which may be saved annually 100 tons of hay, nearly as nutricious as the best timothy or clover.—With the farm would be sold a number of very valuable horses, cows and sheep; waggon, carts, and a variety of farming utensils and household and kitchen furniture; corn, oats and rye, and 40 tons hay. Also, adjoining the one above described, a farm containing 160 acres, recently enclosed, on which is a brick house, which a trifling expense would render comfortable. The soil is excellent, and a considerable part might be easily converted into meadow.—it would be sold with the other or separately. Also, a number of valuable servants, male and female. To prevent unnecessary application, he would observe, that they will only be sold to persons residing in the District or its vicinity, and not to be carried from it. The subscriber will also sell the greater part of his household furniture, which is new and handsome. For terms of all or any part of the above property, apply to NOBLET HERBERT, esq. or Vaccine Institution.

THE small pox having appeared in Alexandria, such persons as have been vaccinated by the subscriber are invited to attend at his office, on St. Asaph-street, between Prince and Duke streets, to have their arms examined. Indigent persons are also invited to the same place for the purpose of being vaccinated. The subscriber will attend at his office every day in the week except Sunday, from 7 o'clock until 10 in the morning, for the purpose of receiving them.

He proposes also to be less particular than heretofore in the investigation of their claims to the benefit of the institution, as may respect their indigence and length of residence in town. The subscriber earnestly requests all such citizens as may be acquainted with persons liable to contagion, to send them without delay as above directed, where they will be served effectually and gratuitously.
